The Rate YOU'LL PAY THE SAME

Altona's rate for the next 12 months will not differ from the past two years — 12.5 cents in the dollar.

This was announced at the council meeting last night (Tuesday).

It ends rumors that the rate was to be increased to 13 cents in the dollar, but several projects have had to be cut down so no increase would be made.

EARLY COPY!

Club correspondents are asked to co-operate by lodging copy as early as possible.

Sporting results and details of other week-end events should be submitted on Sunday, or first thing Monday morning.

Copy may be left at any of the following points:

The Mail, 260 Barkly Street, Footscray.

Williamstown Advertiser office, Ferguson Street.

Keima Press Pty. Ltd., Pier Street, Altona (formerly Altona Star Printing and Publishing Pty. Ltd.).

Copy submitted by mail should be posted to P.O. Box 109, Footscray.

Advertisers are asked to note that Gray's newsagency in Pier Street, will accept classified ads until 4 p.m. Tuesdays.

It is understood that only $2000 has been set aside for preliminary sketch plans for a new swimming pool, whereas a sum of $100,000 had been previously mentioned to be put aside for the project.

An anticipated $6000 set aside for a social worker has also been scrapped as have two other projects — the pumping of the city's two worst drains (at Civic Parade and Mulga Street) direct to the sewerage treatment plant, and the purchase of land at Seaholme.

But in spite of rising costs — the council's Melbourne Metropolitan Fire Brigade levy is up by $9200 and an extra $900 to $1000 will have to be found for each pre-school centre next year — it is understood the council estimates have provided for many other amenities.

It is believed the council's income from rates will be $1,114,167 as compared to $1,063,086 last year, while the loan programme will remain the same as last year — around $250,000

But works program is cut!

Provision has been made on the estimates for toilets to be built at Berrick Square near the Central Hotel at a cost of $7500, an elderly citizens' bus ($2500), and extensions to the council's botanical gardens in the Cherry Lake area ($10,000).

More money will be provided for beach cleaning activities and fire control, while improvements to the council's many reserves take precedence in money allocated out of the loan programme.

A total of $22,000 has been allocated for improvements to Grant, Crofts and Den Dulk reserves and this includes special provision for hockey fields and a special area to be set aside for Little Athletics, both on Grant Reserve.

The sum of $3500 has been set aside for improvements to the St. John's section of the Altona Youth Club and while the council's cultural and charity grants will remain the same, the library grant has been increased from $12,250 to $13,000.

New sewage area opened

"The MMBW has accepted a tender for the sewerage area bounded by Wren Street, The Esplanade, Maidstone Street and Grieve Parade", Cr. Harry Weaver reported at the last meeting.

He said people should now press for sewerage reticulation in this area.

Cr. Weaver added that the MMBW sewerage plant, built at a cost of $3 million, was now catering for only 300 properties, whereas it had a capacity for 15,000.

Berice gets a big 'un

So the schnapper aren't biting yet?

Don't listen to the "expert" fishermen. Take a look at the evidence being held by first-up fisherwoman Mrs. Berice Jenkins.

Berice, receptionist and sales representative at J. R. Buxton Pty Ltd., in Altona, caught this 14 lb. beauty last Wednesday fishing 3½ miles off Altona pier with her husband Bob, Buxton's manager.

Five minutes after Bob cut the engines on his 52 ft. motor cruiser, "Catilina," Berice got the big bite.

"She got the shock of her life and let go the line," says Bob, "It was the best thing she could have done. "She only had a light flathread line, and this would have snapped in a second if she'd held on."

After a 20-minute struggle to land the fish, the lines went back in, but no more schnapper! A fluke? — We wouldn't dare say it!

Scouts busy

The third Altona Scout Group has been busy with many members attaining badges and arranging football matches and a fathers' night attended by 21 fathers.

The pack footy team has been having varied success defeating 2nd Altona, only to lose to 3rd Keilor.

The group recently won a hide for winning their section of the District Sports at Werribee.

Power failures cause shutdown at APC

Power failures caused two shutdowns at the Altona Petrochemical Plant (Maidstone Street) last Tuesday, resulting in flaring and smoke emission.

And this has prompted a letter from the company to Altona council, explaining what actually occurred and asking the council to convey its apologies to the residents for any inconvenience caused.

APC operations assistant manager Mr. Winston Waugh said yesterday the company had received a few complaints, however it was the first such power failure experienced since the company started operations in 1961.

In a prepared statement Mr. Waugh said:

"Instrument power failures at the Altona Petrochemical Company on Tuesday, October 6 caused two "unscheduled plant shutdowns.

"The shutdowns were the first experienced as a result of instrument power failures since the company started operations in 1961.

"The instrumentation is designed to maintain plant operation in a safe condition until the plant can be shut down in an orderly manner and instrument power restored.

"The fault was corrected overnight and the plant started again the following Wednesday."

Marjorie Wilson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson recently married Ronald Barrowman, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Barrowman, at Holy Trinity, Williamstown.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. Phillis Gordon, bridesmaid Miss Lynette Wilson, and flower girl Miss Lynette Gregson.

Brother of the groom, Mr. Graeme Barrowman was best man and Mr. Ray Lyne was groomsman.

The reception was held at Talbot Hall, Williamstown.

Altona Lifesaving Club personalities Roy Bailey and Miss Marlene Hopper were married on Saturday in a ceremony at St. Thomas' Church, Werribee.

Roy, the club's senior active member, is the chief instructor and also holds the positions of vice-captain and property officer.

The wedding was quite a lifesavers' affair, as Mr. J. Richards was best man, Miss Robyn Hopper one of the bridesmaids and Henk and Jeanette Kip's little daughter Karen was flower girl.

The reception was held in the clubhouse and Roy and Marlene are honeymooning in Mildura.

The executive committee and members extend best wishes for a long and happy life together.

Wedding bells for lifesavers

The lifesaving club's monthly executive meeting was held in the clubhouse on Tuesday with Mr. Roy Edwards presiding.

The chief instructor, Mr. R. Bailey, reported that swimming training would continue on Monday nights at the Richmond Baths, bus leaving the clubhouse at 6.30 p.m.

Coach K. Terry reported increasing numbers attending training and said several juniors showed good potential.

Wednesday nights will be devoted to drill instruction for the next few weeks.

Entry forms for the indoor championships at the City Baths are now available and should be completed as soon as possible.

Six members should be ready to go for Bronze Cross soon.

First aid officer Mr. G. Shanahan reported that he had attended the girl guide hall in Civic Parade with D. Shanahan and Miss H. Harley to give a demonstration and lecture on mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

A surprise collection resulted in a sum of money being donated to lifesaving funds and the committee expresses sincere thanks for this gesture.

The president indicated that he would be attending a Rotary Club dinner at the Central Hotel to give a talk on lifesaving.

Membership fees are now due and should be paid to the secretary, Mr. N. Slater, as soon as possible.

Family tickets at $2 include parents and children attending school. Senior membership is $1.40 and junior 70 cents.

Fees cover the use of all club facilities.

Mr. Shanahan will be holding a first aid class on Wednesday evenings in the clubhouse and all members are invited to attend.

The next monthly executive meeting is on November 5, at 7.30 p.m.

Denise wins trip to Fiji

Denise Wilshire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wilshire, of Henry Street, Williamstown, has won a trip for two to Fiji.

The trip, worth $1000, was won in a recent raffle held at St. Paul's College by the Parents and Friends Association.

The winning ticket was drawn by Mr. John Moren, who represented the American Consulate at a barbecue held at the college.

The purpose of the raffle was to raise money to help finance the college's new library which is now being constructed.

The money from the raffle will help make up the difference between the $50,000 Government building grant and the actual cost of the library.

Fr. Winters, Headmaster of St. Paul's, gives Denise Wilshire the letter entitling her to a trip for two to Fiji.

Don't accuse council, says Whittaker

Williamstown Historical Society president, Mr. H. B. Whittaker, in a letter to the editor, praises Williamstown Council for its work in maintaining the local museum.

"Most people within this community are fully aware of the historical importance of Williamstown and to accuse the council of according it shoddy treatment shows lack of local knowledge," he says.

Mr. Whittaker writes: "I desire to thank Mrs. Vallak for her letter, which appeared in your September 30 issue.

"It helped to focus the attention of the community upon the need for improving our local museum, which has been kept in existence for years by a small band of people with the greatest of difficulty.

"It needs more help and encouragement from the community.

"It is only fair to point out that Williamstown council commenced the preservation of relics prior to Williamstown becoming a city.

"Moving closer to the present time, Williamstown council was the first to appoint an historian and pioneered archival records preservation.

"Council has worked in conjunction with the National Trust of Australia, having due regard to the future needs of the city and the rights of the individual.

"With regard to the Williamstown Museum, it might be pointed out that council has just paid to have the whole building fumigated to destroy silverfish.

"Council has supplied without charge to the Williamstown Historical Society the use of the building, telephone service, exhibits and all the fixed cases, as well as rectification of building faults, which continually occur.

"In addition, council is constantly paying to repair damage done by young vandals.

"Williamstown council is acutely aware of its areas of responsibility towards the past, present and future of the municipality."

Williamstown author writes film history

SIR HENRY WOULD SHUDDER

The film showed scenes of Christians being burnt at the stake and being prodded into pits of burning lime and
St. Stephen being stoned to death.

Not exactly scenes which would tickle Sir Henry Bolte, and surprisingly enough the film was made in Australia by the SALVATION ARMY.

The film, called "Soldiers of the Cross", is featured in a book soon to be published called "Australian Silent Films", written by Williamstown author, Eric Reide.

Mr. Reide, who has recently moved to Williamstown, has also completed a second book, a history of Australian talkies, which will also be published soon.

His first book will be launched at the Trak Cinema on November 12, with the showing of some silent films.

The book, although Mr. Reide's first, is by no means his first published work.

He is an ex-journalist, ex-scriptwriter, ex-actor and ad. writer.

He now devotes his time to being Radio and TV Manager of the Alexander Moulton Advertising Agency and to writing and tracking down old films.

Disney script

Among his credits are writing 12,000 live commercials during the first 12 months of television, having one of his scripts used in an ad. produced by Walt Disney and having written "bits and pieces" for Bing Crosby, to use his words.

"Soldiers of the Cross" was the first full length movie ever made.

In 1906, said Mr. Reide, Australia scored another first by making the world's first feature film, "The Story of the Kelly Gang".

Mrs. Reide is also a writer.

Formerly knitting designer for Woman's Day, she is at present writing three books on knitting, sewing and handicrafts.

Mr. Reide has a large collection of stories of the early days of Australian cinema.

For instance, in the 1920 version of the Kelly story, Ned's part was played by Godfrey Cass, which was an abbreviation of Castieau.

Castieau's father was the governor of Melbourne jail, where Ned breathed his last.

Mr. Reide also destroyed the illusion that Australia didn't have any film barons.

A man called Charles Spencer made a fortune, he said — so much so that in 1912 he built one of the world's first film studios at Rushcutter's Bay in Sydney.

Author Eric Reide and his wife at their Williamstown home.

Still standing today, the studio is threatened with extinction because of a new railway project.

It is situated within a stone's throw of White City Stadium.

$1200 budget

One of the interesting things about the studio he said, is that there are several skylights made of optical glass.

This was designed for indoor filming before the advent of powerful lighting.

Footnote on "Soldiers of the Cross" — it was made on a budget of $1200 and shot on location at a tennis court near the site of the Chadstone shopping centre.

ALAN & TED SPEAK (Props.)

Miss Luly's always ready to help

There are few Altona residents who don't know Miss Gwen Luly — at least by sight.

She has lived in Altona since "there was nothing there but sand dunes."

Her parents had a beach house on the Esplanade years ago, and retired to it after the Depression. Miss Luly came to live there just before the war.

In those days one of her many interests was fishing. She used to row out onto the bay in one of her boats, and fish there for hours.

She doesn't know how she was lucky enough to avoid one of the bay's notorious storms, which blow up without warning.

Yet she often had to wade out in a storm in water up to her neck, to make sure that her boats did not drift off.

She never lost any boats this way, though several sank.

Miss Luly, who is in her early seventies, has been a member of the Altona Elderly Citizens' Club since it opened in 1960.

She was president in 1962 and 1965, as well as acting manager for a few months a couple of years ago. She cannot speak too highly of the work the Altona Council has done for the club.

By profession Miss Luly is a nurse. She took her training at the Alfred Hospital and later did midwifery and infant welfare training. Nowadays the only nursing she does is if she happens to be needed at the Citizens' Club.

She finds she has no trouble filling in her time. She helps with the midday meal at the club four days a week, and attends all their social gatherings.

Her current hobby is making miniature displays using toy animals and people. She designed one earlier this year showing Captain Cook's landing at Botany Bay, and is working on one for Christmas.

Gwen Luly is still active at the Altona Elderly Citizens' Club. Here she helps out in the kitchen.

Horses by-law to be changed

Altona Council is to consider changing a proposed "keeping of animals" by-law to enable people wishing to keep a horse to write to council for permission to do so.

Town Clerk (Mr. J. W. Waters) said at the last general purposes committee meeting that clause five of the by-law had been re-written to read:

"Except with written permission issued by the council, no person shall keep any horse or animal, on any property within the municipal district:

• Within a distance of 40

ft. from the nearest point of any dwelling, whether erected on such property or any other property, and having an area less than one acre.

Mr. Waters said the council could adopt, modify or reject any recommendation made by the Chief Health Inspector (Dr. J. Leyden) after people had made applications.

"I understand some councillors will also propose the council sets aside land on a reserve which could be developed for pony club purposes — assuming that the formation of a pony club is required by local people," he said.

Library times may change

A census will be taken among patrons of Williamstown library to determine whether the library should be open at different times.

The proposal is to close the library on Wednesday afternoons, and extend the hours on Saturdays from 12.30 to 5 p.m.

A questionnaire is being prepared, and the city librarian will report to the council's Staff and Library Committee on any additional costs involved in opening the library on Saturday afternoons.

Artist opens exhibition

Prominent artist, Paul Fitzgerald opened the 'Beta Sigma Phi' art exhibition at Altona Civic Hall last week.

The exhibition, was well patronised by Altona citizens and visitors came from all over Melbourne.

The number of exhibitors was greater than ever before and consequently sales were higher.

Mr. Fitzgerald entertained the guests with a witty speech and official guests included the Mayor and Mayor-elect Cr. and Mrs. Grant and other councillors.

Secondary students were represented with displays of pottery, sculpture and paintings.

As proceeds benefit Melbourne Ladies' Society, members are looking forward to planning successful future exhibitions.

Artist Paul Fitzgerald sips sherry while chatting to Beta Sigma Phi recording secretary Geraldine Tyrrell.

BOARD CHIEF WENT TO WILLI HIGH

Former Williamstown High School student, Mr. A. J. A. Gardner was recently appointed chairman of the Public Service Board.

Mr. Gardner B. Com., Dip. Pub. Admin., F.A.S.A., earned his qualifications by studying part time at night for about 10 years.

He joined the Public Service Board in 1929 and became Chief Public Service Inspector in 1957. He was promoted to Auditor General of Victoria in 1965.

Mr. Gardner attended Williamstown High School from 1926, to 1928 and was a member of the Footscray Rowing Club.

He now lives in Pakenham Road, Ashburton.

As chairman of the Public Service Board, he replaces Mr. F. E. Cahill, also an ex-Williamstown High School boy.

Announcing the appointment, the Premier (Sir Henry Bolte) said: "It is most regrettable that Mr. Cahill has been forced to retire through ill health."

"Mr. Cahill has carried out his duties at a standard that could not be bettered."

Mr. Gardner will start his new job in November.

Social service office opens

A new regional Social Services office, to be opened in Footscray this week will cover the Williamstown area.

The office, in Central Arcade, in Nicholson Street, will be officially opened on Friday by Mr. H. J. Melvor, MHR, for Gellibrand.

It will be open for business next Monday, and all claims for pensions, benefits and allowances can be lodged there.

Mr. E. J. Wade will be the registrar, with a staff of about six.

FERRY FUTURE CLOUDED

By Gary Smith

A motorist sits idly tapping his thumb on the steering, stops, reaches for his pocket and pulls out his cigarettes.

A truckie pulls up, reaches for his paper and idly flips through the pages, stopping to glance at the sport.

"Excuse me, my name is Gary Smith. I'm a journalist. What do you think of the proposal to close the Williamstown ferry in the near future?"

"I personally wouldn't like to see it", said the truckie. "I use it a lot for trips to Altona and Newport, it saves me a lot of time."

"I'm a businessman", said one man, "and rarely use it, so it won't worry me a great deal one way or the other."

"Perhaps someone will preserve it as a museum piece."

The sound of clanking, the rattling of chains and a slight smell of smoke drifted in the air, as I asked the next woman, what she thought of the proposal.

"I personally would be quite sorry to see it go. I don't use it much, I'm from the country, you see, matter of fact I'm just going to visit my daughter and grandchildren now."

"The ferry's slow but it sure beats pushing your way down New Footscray road, it's hell".

But, one way and another the ferry seems sure to go, and October 1, 1971 is odds on to be the date.

The operation of the ferry is controlled by the Melbourne Harbor Trust, who issues licences to all craft used in water transport.

The licences are issued each October.

Williamstown Town Clerk Mr. J. E. Morley said, "I don't know that the Harbor Trust will be interested in renewing the licence after the Lower Yarra Crossing is opened."

Non-Profit

Annual operating costs of the service are about $100,000 and we're a non-profit organisation, making only a slight margin of between $7000 and $10,000 a year, which is sent to the State Government. This is used to repay a State Government loan he said.

"The main day by day traffic is industrial, except for weekends when families use it."

"It has been an unfair burden for years on Williamstown's ratepayers to have to virtually subsidise industry."

"I will say this though, the ferry trips are wonderful for the kids. To them it's quite novel."

I posed the question of preserving the ferry to Mr. W. P. Evans Williamstown Council's historian.

"There has been no decision as yet to cease the operation of the service", he said.

"At any rate it's only a pontoon, which isn't the original."

He also said that the ferry had little if any historical value as it was only 39 years old.

He elaborated, "The construction of the craft is not such that it could be a floating exhibition and sunk in cement. I doubt the attraction, quite apart from high cost of the operation," he said.

Despite Mr. Evans' observation, the cancellation of the ferry service will cut a historic link.

The first commercial Yarra crossing was started by Mrs. Ann Spotswood, wife of Captain Spotswood, who gave his name to the suburb.

The service began as an oared skiff in the 1840s near the suburb of Spotswood.

The first regular ferry service began in 1857 by Captain Ruffle, whose craft was also an oared skiff.

The first steam ferry "The Connecting Link" was launched in 1873 and cost the Williamstown Council $3500.

It crossed the Yarra at Newport.

It was described in newspapers at the time as being "a cross between, a dredge and a coffee stall."

It was put into service mainly to carry bluestone from Newport and Spotswood, to what is now Williamstown Road.

After numerous repairs "the link" was replaced in 1907 by a boat called The Newport Steam Ferry, otherwise known as "The Punt," which cost the council $7400, only to sink in August 1931. It was quickly replaced by the existing ferry.

The historical debate must be secondary in the minds of the men who work her — they're looking anxiously to the future.

Suspicious

Suspicious and slightly fed up with the "hundreds" of newspaper reporters the men aren't saying much.

One of the men, who asked me not to mention his name, said: "We can't say anything in case the council read our remarks and dismiss us when the time comes."

However, the Town Clerk, Mr. Morley, said: "Most of the men are near retiring age, the others will most likely be absorbed into other projects, such as the crossing authority (the Lower Yarra Crossing Authority who control the bridge).

One way or another it looks like not only Williamstown, but Melbourne as a whole will lose another interesting, but obsolete link with the past.

ACTION NEEDED ON PENSIONS

Williamstown Council has called for a review of old age pensions to bring them in line with the finances of the rest of the community.

In calling for this, Cr. R. Dawes was rejecting Government views set out in a letter from The Honorable P. Lynch, MP.

The letter, which was forwarded to the council by Mr. H. J. McIvor, MP, stated that the Government had examined the position of pensioners very carefully during the preparation of the Budget. The increase of 50 cents a week announced by the Treasurer in the Budget speech was the maximum which the Government considered that it could responsibly introduce.

Cr. Dawes said that the Government attitude was cynical and divorced from reality. Pensions should be a matter for social workers to decide, not politicians, he said.

WOMEN'S ROLE IS CHANGING

Seventy Western Suburbs Beta Sigma Phi members recently attended the Australia-wide two-day convention at the Hotel Australia.

Among items discussed were:

● Who cares about the new morality? Speaker: The Rev. Professor Graeme Griffen, Ormond College, University of Melbourne.

● Who cares about our Asian neighbors? Speaker: Mr. David Scott, director of Community Aid Abroad and Brotherhood of St. Laurence.

● The changing role of woman in today's society. Speakers: Mrs. Kenneth Myer, LL.B., and Mrs. J. Sargeant, Lecturer in Social Biology at Melbourne University.

At the opening of the convention on October 10, Mrs. V. R. C. Brown, senior vice-president of National Council for Women, expressed her views on women's changing role in society.

Women are now working in the community, dealing with problems of all kinds and sharing responsibility.

Mrs. Brown said Australia needed all the hands and brains it could get.

In a country short of both, we must urge our girls to take up careers to the limit of their capabilities and encourage them to take big parts in the world around them.

"Today life expectancy is 75, which gives today's young women 25 years more than her grandmother."

"We must, therefore, point out to them to choose wisely, after consultation with teachers or vocational guidance experts, to choose careers which will give satisfaction during the whole of their lives."

"Marriage marks not the end of a career, but a break in it."

"The rearing of children in love and security is very important, but the years afterwards are very important, too, and women must prepare for them."

D.O.G.S. to fight Bon Thomas

A Defence of Government Schools candidate, Mr. Raymond Norman Nilsen, last week submitted a last-minute nomination for the Melbourne West seat in the Legislative Council.

He will contest the seat with A.L.P. candidate Mr. H. A. ("Bon") Thomas, in an election on October 24.

Mr. David McKenzie, president of the D.O.G.S. group, said Mr. Nilsen is standing to create a referendum.

"He is in this by-election to take State aid out of the political arena and to allow the people to decide, and not the politicians and party manipulators."

He added: "We are happy to make the contest in a workingman's electorate, since it is the workingmen's children who suffer most from diverting of public money to private schools."

200 guests at school dinner

The Mayor and Mayoress of Altona, Cr. and Mrs. Doug Grant, were among 200 guests at Altona North Primary School's sixth annual dinner dance last week.

On September 29, the school won the Williams-town and district sports and last Thursday, Social Service representative Lilian Jankov presented $200 to Miss Atkinson for the Aborigines' Advancement League.

The mothers' club is arranging a children's fancy dress party for Friday, October 23.

The party will start at 7.30 p.m. at Altona North Youth Club hall. Admission will be 50c for adults and 20c for children.

STREET STALL

West Newport State School will hold a street stall outside the school in Maddox Street on Saturday, October 17.

Williamstown council last week granted the Mothers' Club permission to borrow three street stalls.

Council no to banner

Williamstown High School will have to buy their own banner to advertise their fete on October 17.

The fete is to raise funds for a new assembly hall.

The president of the high school Parents and Citizens Associations to the council asking permission to borrow the sign the council used for the Mayoral Charity Command Performance earlier this year. The sign would need repainting.

The council decided at their last meeting that, since the banner would probably be needed later this year, the school should buy their own.

Other schools in the area had bought their own advertising banners.

The council granted the school permission to hang an advertising banner.

Band to play

The school military band will feature at Williamstown Technical School's concert and display next Wednesday evening.

The programme is being arranged by Mr. Richard Slade, the school's music teacher and band master.

There will be other musical items apart from the band, including a solo by the second music teacher, Mr. George Cadman, on the school's new grand piano.

An open invitation is issued to all those interested in the school to come to the concert, and see some of the progress the school has made.

Admittance is free, and the concert begins at 8 p.m.

DISPLAY AT YOUTH CENTRE

The Williamstown Youth Centre is celebrating its 25th anniversary this year.

The centre is holding its annual display at the Williamstown Town Hall on Friday, November 27. The Governor General of Victoria, Lord Delacombe and Lady Delacombe, will be present.

Flat permit

Williamstown Council has received a permit application for seven, two-storey blocks of flats.

The flats are planned by Albert W. Hick and Son Pty. Ltd. for land on the corner of Parker and Aitken Streets, Williamstown.

At the moment the land is being used for a timber yard.

The matter has been referred to the council's Planning Committee.

Mr. W. Whiffen, 34 Laverton Street, Williamstown, has applied to Williamstown Council for permission to erect at the rear of his home a garage with an area of 625 sq. ft.

As the area is in excess of 400 sq. ft. the council's approval to the construction is necessary, and the matter has been referred to ward councillors.

The same action has been taken with an application by Mr. J. V. Newnham, 80 Stevedore Street, Williamstown, for a 432 sq. ft. garage at the side of his dwelling.

ALTONA PRESSURES YALLOURN - NOW REPLAY

Yallourn had to live through a torrid game at Frankston on Saturday under constant pressure from Altona playing at top form.

Altona pinned Yallourn into its own half of the field for long periods of the semi-final.

All credit goes to Yallourn which survived after a one-all draw which included 30 minutes of extra time.

Yallourn supporters were a great bunch and applauded the Maroons as the team moved the ball from man to man at a bewildering pace.

Balisif, Keane, Savage and Golbard were in great fettle. Ackers and Hynes with solid tackles bottled up the Yallourn attack which relied on the long pass. The Maroons were dangerous in their raiding moves.

Copley and Ormerod had to stay close to the wingers who always appeared likely to break away.

Herman and Stancovski, the Altona wingers, were the cause of a lot of problems for the Yallourn defence goalkeepers. Yallourn always seems to save up its good games for Altona and the young Yallourn keeper was no exception.

He played a great game and it was largely due to his efforts that his team got another chance.

Altona opened the scoring when Golbard latched on to a good pass from Keane to slam home a great goal from 20 yards out. One moment later Yallourn had the equaliser in the net as a hard four shot eluded Roberts.

Altona really put on the pressure. Savage, Stancovski and Maroons had on it, in fleeting raids.

It is evident Yallourn is a good side as it has only lost one game in 22. Yallourn kept plugging away, never giving up. It looked a beaten side as the game moved into extra time, but struggled along. On two occasions Yallourn could well have pulled the game out of the fire for no matter what Altona tried a goal eluded it.

Tommy Keane had a great try but the keeper managed for fall on the ball right on the goal line and the game was finished in a 1 to 1 draw. The replay will be at Frankston.

Steve Herman, the Altona City winger was made a life member at Tuesday's AGM. Steve has played 167 games for Altona. In his six years with the club he has never had his name taken and has scored over 100 goals. He is a real credit to his generation.

Steve gets married on Saturday so he will be missing from the Saturday line-up. The club and its supporters wish Steve and his bride very happiness.

Altona City's drawn Federation Cup semi-final against Yallourn will be replayed at Olympic Park at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, November 14.

ACB with the task of scoring 33 runs for the outright, collapsed early in the innings to be 4/11.

However, steady batting by K. Harris (22 not out) and D. Sandell (10 not out) gave Australian Carbon Black the points.

Other scorers in ACB's second innings were J. Saunders, 0; C. Holton, 0; J. Rollinson, 1; G. Nash, 1.

Historical society to meet

The next general meeting of the Williamstown Historical Society will be held on Thursday, October 22 at 8.00 p.m. in the Mechanics Institute, Electra Street, Williamstown.

Mr. Neil S. Smith, of the Shiplovers' Society, will be guest speaker.

Mr. Smith has prepared an illustrated talk to mark the bi-centenary of Captain Cook's landing in Australia.

During the excursion on Sunday, October 4, society members passed through the Barrabool Hills, turning left at Mt. Moriac to visit the tiny Methodist Presbyterian Church at Moriac, built in 1856.

After passing through Modewarre and Layard, they followed the shores of Wurdee-Boluc Reservoir.

At Winchelsea they saw Ned Kelly and a fountain, both cleverly made of farm machinery parts. The fine old bridge over the Barwon River was built in 1867.

At both Winchelsea and Inverleigh they looked at old churches, banks and other buildings.

An interesting building was St. Paul's Church of England, built in 1858 and classified by the National Trust, as are also the Lakes Hotel and former inn opposite.

Visitors recently have been the Veteran Car Drivers' Club, Adult Education Association Historical Group and Frankston Historical Society.

A small group of teachers from Melbourne and Sydney were very interested in Williamstown and were impressed by Maritimo.

Seymour Historical Society visits Williamstown on Sunday, October 11 and Box Hill City Historical Society on Saturday, October 24.

Sixty students from Essendon Grammar School will tour Williamstown in October. St. Mark's Church of England, Spotswood, has changed to Sunday, November 15.

The weekend tour to Warrambol commencing Friday night, November 27, will leave soon after 6 p.m.

Mr. J. A. Ferguson has donated 25 books to the society's library and Mrs. F. Panter a second pillow for the double bed.

A tall glass bowl that once held wax fruit or flowers (received from Mrs. R. Scott) now holds an arrangement of dried wildflowers from Western Australia, made tall to suite the bowl—another gift from our kind Mrs. Panter.

Subscriptions of $1 are now due.

The third round of the WSTA summer competition showed a marked improvement in Altona's teams.

A grade, with a somewhat disorganised team, went down narrowly in Kingsville while the unlucky A reserve I side was for the third time narrowly defeated.

A reserve II, with C. Turner playing great tennis, had a win over Liston and showed they have a great chance of reaching the finals.

B Special I were the unluckiest of all Altona's teams. After trailing all day they fought back in the mixed level on games but lost five sets to four.

From the other three senior teams, B Special II and B Grade III had very good wins over experienced opponents and B4 suffered their first defeat at the hands of Liston Esplanade.

All male members are to note that a working bee will be held on Sunday, October 18 starting at 10 a.m. The new courts are now playable but will not remain this way unless the wind breaks are put up.

The club committee and all other members would like to wish A. Granger Albert Walker good luck. Robert, who has not only been a fine player over the past few years, but has also been a fine worker went over to Tasmania on a working holiday. The club looks forward to the day when Robert will once again be a member.

Nominated

Cr. F. W. Jarrad had been nominated chairman of the Williamstown Council Staff and Library Committee for the next 12 months.

Cr. H. B. Whittaker will be chairman of the planning committee.

New industry

Williamstown may get a new industry — lambswool dusters made from pretanned skins.

Ileen Australia Pty. Ltd., has asked Williamstown Council for permission to use shop premises at 82 Ferguson Street for this purpose.

The application has been referred to the council's Planning Committee.

ALTONA ROTORACT

The next meeting of the Altona Rotoract Club will be held at Altona High School on Friday, October 16, at 7.30 p.m.

This week's guest speaker will be Father Brian Walsh, who has recently returned from an overseas visit. His talk promises to be most interesting.

At the previous Rotoract meeting, apologies were extended to those inconvenienced by the temporary cancellation of the car rally-barbecue, which will now be held on Sunday, October 25. Entry is $1 per car and an enjoyable time is promised to all who attend. Bookings and further information can be obtained by phoning Alan Newton on 398 2451.

ALTONA OPEN WITH THREE WINS

In a splendid opening to the new season, three Altona XI's gained first innings victories.

The quality of morale alone must be gratifying to new coach Ken Hansen and the club's supporters.

Although forced to play in adverse conditions on the first day, even the youngest members of each side were not deterred and success was the reward in three of the four senior grade matches.

In the fourth match a team of youngsters fully extended a much more experienced senior side.

A GRADE

It appeared that Royal Park, aided by the improvement in both the wicket and weather, may have been able to get close to Altona's first innings tally of 160 by the addition of 25 runs to their overnight score of four for 34 without loss.

However, Altona's opening bowler Terry Gray quickly shattered any Royal Park hopes when, after being swung into the wind, succeeded in having Stuart caught from a well-directed delivery.

The loss of this wicket started the rot and Altona succeeded in bundling the opposition out for 98.

Bowling honors went to Terry Gray (4/20) off 11.7 overs including three maidens. He was ably supported by Jim Page and other wicket takers in Stan Parke, Ken Hansen and Ron McCullagh.

Tops with the bat were Ken Duff (59), Ken Hansen (29) and Jim Page (20)—the trio who started on the first day and again on Saturday retrieved a poor start in the second innings of 146.

The total left Royal Park no chance of gaining points in the match. In their second knock they had lost one for 7 (Gray 1/1).

B GRADE

After resuming at three for 38, chasing Myrall's total of 170, Altona's chances took a turn for the worse when early wickets fell to leave them on five for 47.

At this stage Alec Merrill and Noel Michael steadied by adding 20 runs before Michael was out.

Ian Hughes joined Merrill and they proceeded to put on 30 more valuable runs before

Ian was trapped lbw for a patient 6 runs.

Merrill was 33 at this stage and, due to a pulled thigh muscle, required a runner, a function which was adequately met by Brian Guarde, whose running between wickets greatly assisted.

Alan Willett and Merrill then added 31 runs for the eighth wicket but the ninth wicket fell with Altona still 41 runs short of target—with Merrill, although handicapped, on 57 n.o.

After the tea break the "old heads" Merrill and Naughton proceeded to gather runs without taking risks and, with the score at 168 "Shar-kie" Naughton hit a beautiful drive for 4 runs and victory.

Merrill was out soon after for a magnificent 81, leaving Naughton 18 n.o. The innings by Merrill, greater portion of which was scored while he was under extreme pressure and suffering from his injury, will be remembered as one of Altona's most creditable fighting performances.

At stumps Myrall were three for 47 with bowling honors going to David Hitchcock 2/21 and Alan Willett 1/8.

C GRADE

Altona opened with an exciting victory when they defeated last year's runners-up by five runs on the first innings.

Wickets were hard to come by on the perfect batting strip and it was only through some excellent fielding, which brought four run-outs, that the locals were able to maintain the pressure on the batsmen.

Altona resumed at nine for 135 and were unable to add to this total. Paul Jenkins remained not out for a well made 25.

Neville Healey, opening the attack, took a wicket with his seventh ball, and although loose in his second over, struck again when Ron Cook heid a catch.

Rodney Gray, bowling from the other end, was on the spot but unable to break through. Cook relieved Healey and also found the going difficult but was able to slow down the scoring rate.

With the score on 56 the batsmen were gaining confidence when Graeme Hosken threw the stumps down to claim a victim. This was followed immediately by another run out when Healey fielded well at short fine leg.

From four for 56, Kensington United found runs difficult to obtain and sacrificed two more wickets in run outs when Healey struck again and Jim Joyce threw the stumps down.

Things were warming up with Altona requiring two for 36 to win. Gray and Healey were reintroduced into the attack and the latter gained his third wicket when Hosken took a catch in slips.

Gray enticed McNair to loft a ball when only seven runs were between victory and defeat — and the catch was dropped. It appeared as though the game would slip away from Altona.

But then Ron Cook, after having two runs taken from his first ball, forced an edge straight to Gray at first slip for Altona to take the points.

One good effort deserving mention is that of Rodney Gray, who bowled 17 overs against the breeze in a marathon spell and was unlucky not to obtain better results.

With an hour's play remaining Altona took an opportunity of obtaining some valuable practice and at stumps were two for 60, with Joyce 25 n.o.

CLUB XI

Although trailing on the first innings a young and enthusiastic Altona side tested their older and more experienced opponents, Williamstown Baseballers, by making them play to their best and use all their ability in gaining an outright victory.

Good bowling efforts were put forward by Dick Conradi 5/43 and 1/9, and youngster Peter Mildenhall 3/11.

Even in defeat the young members turned in some creditable performances with the bat, particularly Mildenhall, who opened each innings and scored 14 and 16, while Peter Carton got 15 and five, and Glen Knight five and 14.

The performance generally indicated that it will not be too long before this team wins its matches, and in addition, several of its players show they have the ability to force their way into higher graded sides.

Altona bowling

Best performers on Altona Bowling Club's charity day last Saturday were Ian Douglas, Theo Reid and Lindsay Craig, of Jack Fisher's rink.

On Sunday, Altona had a visit from Newport Bowling Club.

Newport's trophy winners were Mrs. Edna Snow, Mrs. Toddy Thompson, Reg Jackson and Neil McKellar.

Trophy winners for Altona were Madge Wenzler, George Snowdon, Isla Probert and Jack Fisher.

HOME LOANS

WHAT IT CAN DO FOR YOU AS A HOME PURCHASER.

STOPS the ever rising cost of housing because once you have purchased you get the advantage of rising real estate values.

STARTS immediate equity in the home you select. This in reality means that your home is earning you about 7½ per cent. per annum, as this is the rising real estate average value (Government statistics, not ours) in the metropolitan area.

STOPS rent money pouring down the drain, these are also rising. Not so when you purchase because you have sealed off rising costs the moment you purchase.

STARTS home buying immediately.

STOPS "The Deposit Gap". There is another thing that is certain apart from death or taxes. Homes will continue to rise in price. This also means that you will need more deposit to meet increasing purchase prices.

STOPS the worry of home purchase. How often have you doubted the fact that you will ever qualify for a housing loan?

START NOW. Ring Buxtons NOW. Let them show you how you can become a home owner with as little as $1000 deposit.

Remember we can definitely help you own your own home.

Our reputation is at your disposal.

Remember you start packing when you call Buxtons.

HOME SELLERS

How does Buxton's Home Finance affect you? It will enable a purchaser to buy your property with finance available to him up to 90 per cent. of the selling price.
